GENERAL PROVISIONS

Section

- 1001. Policy.
- 1002. Purpose.
- 1003. Severability.
- 1004. Definitions.

§ 1001. Policy and Findings.

- (a) It is the policy of the Band to provide a preference in employment and contracting to members of the Band and other federally recognized Indian tribes.
 - (1) This policy applies to employment and contracting by the Band’s government, including all branches, departments and agencies thereof, by all Band-owned entities while they are engaged in commercial or economic activities on behalf of the Band within the Band’s Reservation and by all persons and entities doing business with the Band, including subcontractors of persons or entities contracting with the Band, within the Band’s Reservation.
 - (2) This policy: (A) is intended to further the Band’s overriding interests in self-government, self-sufficiency, and economic development; (B) is directed to the participation of the governed in the Band’s governing bodies and in its commercial and economic activities; (C) is intended to make the Band’s government and its commercial and economic activities more responsive to the needs of its constituents; and (D) is intended to provide for the economic security and employment of members of the Band and of other federally recognized Indian tribes and to overcome the effects of past discrimination against such persons.
 - (3) Economic insecurity and unemployment are serious impediments to the health, morale, and welfare of the Band. Employment and contracting opportunities with the Band’s government and with Band-owned entities and other persons and entities doing business with the Band within the Band’s Reservation are important resources for members of the Band and of other federally recognized Indian tribes, who have historically suffered from discrimination in employment and contracting opportunities. As a result, Indian people living on or near the Band's Reservation have unique and special employment rights under federal law, and the Band is obligated to implement those rights.

- (b) Subject to the policy described in subsection (a) of this section, all employees subject to the Band's jurisdiction are entitled to a workplace environment that prohibits employment discrimination, protects employees' wages, and promotes health and safety.
- (c) The provisions of this chapter are critically important to the health and welfare of members of the Band and of other federally recognized Indian tribes, especially those residing on or near the Band's Reservation. Unemployment and underemployment within the boundaries of the Band's Reservation are consistently many times higher than the national and state average. This pervasive unemployment and underemployment has directly contributed to serious social problems and a lower quality of life for members of the Band and of other federally recognized Indian tribes residing on or near the Band's Reservation and impeded the self-governance objectives of the Band.
- (d) The Band declares that the public good and the welfare of the Band require the enactment of this chapter, which is enacted pursuant to the Band's inherent sovereign and political powers, in order to increase employment of and the number of businesses owned by members of the Band and of other federally recognized Indian tribes, especially within the Band's Reservation, and to protect the workforce rights of Indian and non-Indian employees within the jurisdiction of the Band.

Band Ordinance 41-22.

§ 1002. Purpose.

This chapter is adopted by the Mille Lacs Band of Ojibwe (the Band), under its inherent sovereign and political powers, for the following purposes:

- (a) to promulgate Band laws and rules governing employment relations and contracting preference within the Band's jurisdiction;
- (b) to establish the Band's Tribal Employment Rights Office (TERO) in order to enforce the Band's laws governing employment and contracting preference, and to protect the rights of all members of the Band, members of other federally recognized Indian tribes, and all other employees within the Band's jurisdiction;

- (c) to increase the employment of members of the Band and of other federally recognized Indian tribes;
- (d) to eradicate employment discrimination, protect employees' wages, and protect employees' health and safety within the Band's jurisdiction;
- (e) to provide a fair, enforceable, and effective system of preferences in contracting and sub-contracting as it relates to the provision of supplies, services, labor, and materials to the Band's government and to Band-owned entities and other persons or entities doing business with the Band, including subcontractors of persons or entities contracting with the Band, within the Band's Reservation; and
- (f) to supersede all other provisions of Band law that are inconsistent with the provisions of this chapter.

§ 1003. Severability.

If any provision of this chapter, or the application thereof to any person, business, corporation, government, including any agency or political subdivision thereof, or circumstance, is held invalid, the invalidity shall not affect any other provision or application of this chapter that can be given effect without the invalid provision or application, and to this end the provisions of this chapter are declared severable.

- (a) Every covered employer, other than the Band, that enters into a contract with the Band totaling $25,000.00 or more shall pay a one-time project fee of one-half percent (0.5%) of the total amount of the contract. The covered employer shall pay the full amount of the fee before commencing work on the Reservation under the contract, provided that the director may, for good cause shown by the covered employer, authorize the fee to be paid in installments over the life of the contract, and provided further that if the total amount of the contract is subsequently increased, the covered employer shall pay the additional amount due (0.5% of the increased amount of the contract) at the time of the increase. A contractor shall not be permitted to commence work on the reservation until it has executed this form, provided that this provision shall not apply if the imposition of the fee with respect to the contractor is prohibited by federal law.

PROHIBITION OF EMPLOYMENT DISCRIMINATION

Section

1051. Prohibited Discrimination.

1052. Religious Accommodation.

1053. Discrimination based on Disability.

1054. Discrimination based on Pregnancy.

1055. Harassment.

1056. Retaliation.

§ 1051. Prohibited Discrimination.

Except as necessary to comply with the Indian employment preferences in subchapter 3 of this chapter, it shall be unlawful for a covered employer to do any of the following acts wholly or partially based on the actual or perceived race, color, religion, national origin, sex, age, sexual orientation, or political affiliation of any individual, unless such characteristic is a bona fide occupational qualification:

- (a) fail or refuse to hire, or discharge, any individual, or otherwise discriminate against any individual, with respect to his or her compensation, terms and conditions, or privileges of employment, including promotion;
- (b) discriminate in recruiting individuals for employment, or
- (c) limit, segregate, or classify employees in any way that would tend to deprive them of employment opportunities.

Band Ordinance 41-22.

§ 1052. Religious Accommodation.

It shall be an unlawful discriminatory practice for a covered employer to refuse to make a reasonable accommodation for an employee's religious or spiritual observance, unless doing so would cause undue hardship to the employer. A reasonable religious accommodation is any adjustment to the work environment that will allow the employee to practice his or her religion, such as flexible scheduling, voluntary substitutions or swaps, job reassignments and lateral transfers if approved by the authorized supervisor in accordance with the Band's Personnel Policy Manual. An accommodation would cause an employer undue hardship when it would require more than ordinary administrative costs, diminish efficiency in other jobs, infringe on other employees' job rights or benefits, impair workplace safety, cause co-workers to carry the accommodated employee's share of potentially hazardous or burdensome work, or conflict with another applicable law or regulation.

Band Ordinance 41-22.

§ 1053. Discrimination based on Disability.

- (a) It shall be unlawful for a covered employer to discriminate in any aspect of employment against a qualified individual with a disability because of that disability. However, it is not unlawful for a covered employer to use employment qualification standards, tests, or selection criteria that are job related and consistent with business necessity that make an individual with a disability ineligible for an employment position where the individual could not perform the job even with reasonable accommodation. Nothing in this section shall prohibit a covered employer from refusing to hire an individual with a disability for or from discharging such an individual from an employment position if the individual, because of the disability, is unable to perform the duties of the position, would perform the duties in a manner that would endanger the health and safety of the individual or others, or is unable to be at or go to or from the place at which the position is located.
- (b) Subject to the provisions of subsection (c) of this section, a reasonable accommodation for an individual's disability may include but is not limited to making facilities readily accessible to and usable by disabled persons, job restructuring, modifying work schedules, reassignment to a vacant position, acquisition or modification of equipment or devices, and the provision of aides on a temporary or periodic basis.
- (c) An accommodation is not required if it would impose an undue hardship on the employer's operation. In determining whether an undue hardship exists, employers may consider:
 - (1) the overall size of the business or organization with respect to the number of employees and the number and type of facilities;
 - (2) the type of the operation, including the composition and structure of the work force, and the number of employees at the location where the employment would occur;
 - (3) the nature and cost of the accommodation;
 - (4) the reasonable ability to finance the accommodation at each site of business; and
 - (5) documented good faith efforts to explore less restrictive or less expensive alternatives, including consultation with the disabled person or with knowledgeable disabled persons or organizations.

A covered employer shall treat women affected by pregnancy, childbirth, or related medical conditions the same for all employment-related purposes, including receipt of benefits under fringe benefit programs, as other persons not so affected, but similar in their ability or inability to work. This requirement shall include, but is not limited to, the requirement that a covered employer must treat an employee temporarily unable to perform the functions of her job because of a pregnancy-related condition in the same manner as it treats other temporarily disabled employees.

- (a) It shall be unlawful employment discrimination for a covered employer to subject an employee or applicant to unwelcome sexual advances, requests for sexual favors, and other verbal or physical conduct of a sexual nature, as well as unwelcome comments, jokes, acts, and other verbal or physical conduct related to race, color, national origin, religion, sex, age, sexual orientation, or disability when:
 - (1) submission to such conduct is made either explicitly or implicitly a term or condition of an individual's employment;
 - (2) submission to or rejection of such conduct by an individual is used as the basis for employment decisions affecting such individual; or
 - (3) such conduct has the purpose or effect of substantially interfering with an individual's work performance or creating an intimidating, hostile, or offensive working environment.
- (b) A covered employer is responsible for acts of workplace harassment by its employees when the employer, its agents, or its supervisory employees knew of the conduct. A covered employer may rebut apparent liability for such acts by showing that it took immediate and appropriate corrective action upon learning of the harassment.

A covered employer may not retaliate against an individual for bringing a good-faith claim against the employer for a violation of this chapter or because the individual opposed a practice he or she believed to violate this chapter or participated in an enforcement proceeding pursuant to subchapter 9 of this chapter. The firing, demoting, harassing, or taking of any other adverse action against an individual shall constitute retaliation within the meaning of this section. Band Ordinance 41-22.

§ 1086. Hearing Procedures.

- (a) Any hearing held pursuant to this chapter shall be conducted by the TERO Commission. The hearing shall be governed by rules of practice and procedure that are adopted by the TERO Commission. The director and the covered employer shall have the right to call and cross examine witnesses, as well as present physical evidence. The TERO Commission may consider any evidence that it deems relevant to the hearing. The TERO Commission shall not be bound by technical rules of evidence in the conduct of hearings under this chapter, and the presence of informality in any proceeding, as in the manner of taking testimony, shall not invalidate any order, decision, rule, or regulation made, approved, or confirmed by the TERO Commission. The director shall have the burden of proving that the covered employer violated this chapter by a preponderance of the evidence. An audio recording shall be made of each hearing. No stenographic record of the proceedings and testimony shall be required except upon arrangement by, and at the cost of, the covered employer.

- (b) The director shall prosecute the alleged violation on behalf of the TERO. During the hearing and at all stages of the enforcement process provided for in this chapter, the director may be represented by the Band Solicitor General's Office. If the covered employer is an office or subsidiary of the Band Government and the Band Solicitor General's Office determines it would create a conflict to represent the director, the Solicitor General may obtain outside legal counsel for the director.
- (c) The TERO Commission shall sit as an impartial judicial body. The TERO Commission shall establish procedures and safeguards to ensure that the rights of all parties are protected and that there is no improper contact or communication between the TERO Commission and the director during the hearing phase of the enforcement process.
- (d) If the TERO Commission requires legal assistance during the hearing process, or at any other phase of the enforcement process, and it would be a conflict of interest for the Band Solicitor General's Office to provide such representation, the Solicitor General shall attempt to retain outside legal counsel.

§ 1087. Sanctions.

- (a) If, after a hearing, the TERO Commission determines that the alleged violation of this chapter or a regulation issued pursuant to it has occurred, and that the party charged has no adequate defense in law or fact, or if a party was issued a formal notice of noncompliance and failed to request a hearing, the TERO Commission may:
 - (1) deny such party the ability to commence business on lands owned by or for the benefit of the Band or its members on the reservation, provided that the party is not an office, division, branch, subsidiary, entity, or commercial enterprise of the Band;
 - (2) suspend such party's business activity on lands owned by or for the benefit of the Band or its members on the reservation, provided that the party is not an office, division, branch, subsidiary, entity, or commercial enterprise of the Band;
 - (3) terminate such party's business activity on lands owned by or for the benefit of the Band or its members on the reservation, provided that the party is not an office, division, branch, subsidiary, entity, or commercial enterprise of the Band;

- (4) deny the ability of such party to conduct any further business with the Band or on lands owned by or on behalf of the Band or its members on the reservation, provided that the party is not an office, division, branch, subsidiary, entity or commercial enterprise of the Band;
 - (5) impose a civil fine of up to $500.00 per violation per day following the date for compliance;
 - (6) order such party to make payment of back pay or other damages to any aggrieved party;
 - (7) order such party to dismiss any employees hired in violation of the Band's employment rights requirements;
 - (8) reimburse any party who improperly paid a TERO fee or overpaid said fee, but no interest shall be paid in such cases; or
 - (9) order the party to take such other action as is necessary to ensure compliance with this chapter or to remedy any harm caused by a violation of this chapter, consistent with the requirements of the laws of the Band and the Indian Civil Rights Act, 25 U.S.C., § 1301, et seq.
- (b) The TERO Commission's decision shall be in writing and shall be served on the charged party by registered mail or in person by an employee of the TERO no later than thirty (30) days after the close of the hearing. The decision shall contain findings of fact sufficient to support the TERO Commission's ordered relief, or lack thereof. Upon a showing by the Director or the charged party that further delay will cause irreparable harm, the TERO Commission shall issue its decision within ten (10) days after the close of the hearing. If the party fails to comply with the TERO Commission's decision within ten (10) days, the Director may file for an injunction in the Band's Court of Central Jurisdiction. The Court shall grant such injunctive relief as is necessary to prevent irreparable harm pending an appeal or expiration of the time for the party to file an appeal.

- (a) An appeal to the Band's Court of Central Jurisdiction may be taken from any formal order of the TERO Commission by any party adversely affected thereby, including a complainant. To take such an appeal, a party must file a notice of appeal in the Band's Court of Central Jurisdiction and serve a copy of the notice of appeal on the

 - (d) The Court shall review the decision of the TERO Commission de novo.
 - (e) If a party has failed to come into compliance with a decision of the TERO Commission from which no appeal has been taken or a decision of the Court, within 20 days after receipt of notice of such decision, the Director shall petition the Court and the Court shall grant such orders as are necessary and appropriate to enforce the orders of the TERO Commission or Court.
 - (f) If the order of the TERO Commission is reversed or modified, the Court shall specifically direct the TERO Commission as to further action the TERO Commission shall take in the matter, including making and entering any order or orders in connection therewith, and the limitations, or conditions to be contained therein.

§ 1089. Monitoring.

If, when carrying out inspections at work sites or otherwise carrying out their responsibilities under this chapter, the director or TERO compliance officers have reason to believe that a requirement of a Tribal, Federal, state, or local law, act, or regulation, other than the ones included in this chapter, may have been violated by a party, the director and TERO compliance officers are authorized to document such possible violations, to report said violations to the appropriate enforcement agency, and, to the extent that resources permit and the director determines it to be appropriate, assist that agency in its attempt to investigate and cure the possible violation.
